this county.

Coming from the train they met Rev. J W. Beall of this place by previous appointment at the hotel. Repairing to the parlor, in the presence of the proprietor, Mr Korn and wife and the hotel guest, the minister performed the ceremony which made them one. After dining at the hotel they left for Pittsburg, Pennsylvania and her former home. Miss Chitister taught public school at Burner, this county, last year and this year at May. Both the contracting parties are from Pennsylvania and after their wedding tour they will reside at May.

Mr. H. G. Fairman, of Boston, died on Sunday evening, at his residence in Brookline.

He was born in New Haven, Conn., on Oct. 11, 1811, and was educated in the schools of that city, and also at Yale University, where he graduated in 1831.

He studied law in New Haven, and was admitted to the bar in 1835.
He then removed to Boston, where he became a member of the North American Advertiser and Evening Spy.

In 1841 he removed to New York, and became a member of the New York Advertiser and Evening Spy, and remained there until 1845.

From New York he went to Philadelphia and became a member of the Daily Pennsylvanian.

Mr. H. G. Fairman possessed a very able command of the English language, and was a member of a very large company.

We were sorry to learn of the death of

Retiring from Business.

On account of the ill health of J. D. Wilmoth the firm of Wilmoth & Kier, at Durbin, is going to retire from business. Big preparations are being made for closing out their business at Durbin. They have been doing business for a long time at Durbin and the people in the upper end of the county are acquainted with both parties of the firm. They know their sale is genuine and will make special effort to be present and take advantage of the exceptional bargains they are offering. It is rather unfortunate that Mr. Wilmoth must retire at this time, as his store has a county-wide reputation, and his customers have been looking forward to a continuation of business relations with him. However, fate has decreed otherwise, and the last chance is now offered for genuine bargains. Be sure to take advantage of it.

W. H. Hiner was down from Durbin Tuesday. Will likes his new home and the higher climate seems to be doing him good. He is in the hardware business with his brother S. H. Hiner.

Engine 673 on the main line of the C. & O. blew up near Whitcomb, Monday. Engineer Smith had his right shoulder dislocated and face slightly

Some Democrats talked Saturday night of contesting the Thornwood and Durbin precincts where every body voted to defeat Mr. Heyenier at the County court, but wiser heads prevailed and a successful contest would have knocked off Waugh and Sheets the successful Democratic candidate. The trouble seems to have been that Thornwood wanted County bridge which they failed to secure at the hands of the Democratic County Court at this reason Mr. Heyenier is swamped.

gheny Mt. battle was fought Dec. 13, 1861. The Confederates had a winter camp on top the mountain for five months with Gen. W.
W. Lorring and Col. Edward Johnson in command. You can see piles of stones placed at regular intervals which represent the charneys of the Log cabin, where the soldiers were quartered. Trenches, fortifications and graves of the soldiers, which are now just mounds no markers, can be seen. The land

DURBIN

Our town was made to sorrow by the death of L. C. Frazier. He was one of the first settlers of Durbin. He had been in failing health for two years. For the past month he has been in the Hinton Hospital for treatment. His death occurred on Wednesday night, May 29, 1929. His body was brought home for burial in the Goodsell cemetery near Bartow. The service was conducted by Rev. L. O. Rose of Talcott, at the Frazier home. A large number of persons attended the funeral. Mr. Frazier is greatly missed.

L. C. Morris killed a very large bear on Elk mountain. Tiffin Mullenax had lost about thirty lambs by this bear which had a mania for lambs about six weeks old. Mr. Mullenax located where the bear attended, and called Mr. Morris and his three bear dogs. After a short chase, the dogs halted the bear and Mr. Morris shot him. The neighbors around are rejoicing over the death of this sheep thief. Mr. Morris has three of the best bear dogs in the county.

H. H. Hudson will have his garage finished in a week or two.

W. W. Marshall.

Rev. L. S. Shires was taken very ill on last Friday a week ago. On Wednesday he was taken to the Ronceverte Hospital. He has been operated on for gall bladder trouble. We are glad to say he is getting along as well as could be expected.

J. F. Woodell, of Nottingham is improving after a long illness. He is able to walk around.

Mrs. M. E. Folks is in Durbin visiting her many friends.

Some of the farmers are not done planting corn, on account of the long wet spell. All vegetation is late in this part.

Clipping sheep makes this a busy week, with the circuit meeting, too.

We are sorry to hear of the critical illness of Thomas Beverage on Back Allegheny. He is one of our oldest and best citizens.

C. K. Livesay and W. H. Arbogast were up from Marlinton Friday to attend the funeral of J. C. L.

Lots of fishermen up in this part, but the water has been too high to catch any. The Creator protected the trout this season. Some of us folks have to be content with chubs, and they are fine pan fish too. Thirty chubs is no big catch this year.

W. O. Rose is papering his house and otherwise improving his property. William Greathouse is doing the painting and carpenter work.

Durbin Tannery Super is Fined for Polluting

Because a bucket of minnows lived only four minutes after being placed in the river opposite the Durbin Tannery, Superintendent H. M. Widney accepted an invitation Friday from State Game Protector Ernest Angelo and District Protector Theodore Moore, to appear before Justice of the Peace J. A. Patterson, at Arbovale, on that day and receive punishment for polluting Greenbrier river to the extent that fish life is endangered.

According to the story of the protectors, they suspected that the water opposite the tannery was rank poison, and to verify their suspicion spent an hour or so seigning minnows to give it a trial. After getting a good supply of healthy minnows, they confronted Mr. Widney and invited him to help perform the experiment. He told them where to put the minnows, and four minutes after they were placed in the water all signs of life was exterminated.

Mr. Widney was taken before Justice Patterson, and after much argumentation, the penalty was fixed at $15.00.

to the service of Almighty God, on the 27th day of August 1859, at 11 A.M. in services by Rev. Charles W. Lee. Text 127 Psalm 96. Part of the first verse. By order of the Greenbrier Presbytery, this church was organized by John C. Barr on the 21st day of August 1859, with members from Liberty Church at Greenbank as follows:
Albert A. McCutchan, and Robert Curry, ruling Elders; Elizabeth I.
McCutchan, Nancy McLaughlin, Samuel McCutchan, Christine Jane McCutchan, Elizabeth S. Curry, Caroline R. Nottingham, Nancy C.
McCutchan, Matilda J. Craig, Caroline Z. Harrick, John B. McCutchan, Albert A. McCutchan, William A. McCutchan and Elizabeth E. McCutchan.
Pastors who have served this church:

Rev. W. W. Barr, Revs. R. P. Kennedy, W. C. Dunlap, A. H. Hamilton,
W. A. Brown, Wm T. Price, J. D., J. F. Alexander, R. M. Caldwell, J. W. Clark, Wm. L. Fultz, Bain, J. S. Kennison, and others.

Young men and students who have endeared themselves by their faithful service to the church: W. Howell, A.D. Watkins, Lewis Lancaster now a missionary in China, and Marion Staenstricker now a missionary in China, and one student at McLaughlin School house which is a distance from town to the church, two deacons, and established members.

The first school was opened in this place near the present school, and went left it a creek from the present school, except and kept up until very much time after the present school was built, and the present school (1861) was built on the site of the old school, and the old school was torn down.

little to mar the building, and much to encourage the spiritual life. All this with three new elders and three new Deacons will add much strength to the cause of Christ.

METHODIST CHURCH

Under the leadership of Rev. W. H. Ballengee the Methodist Episcopal Church, South was built in 1880 and 1891. It was dedicated in August 1891 by Dr. J. W. Young. Trustees were William H. Jackley, Jacob Taylor, C. R. Moore and E. N. Moore. The Lewisburg District Conference met at the church at that time.

The building of the church and organizing of the society was largely due to the efforts of Rev. Ballengee and his estimable wife. Fourteen pastors have served this church. The present pastor is Rev. L. S. Shires.

The Methodist congregation at Dunmore have done much to express their loyalty; their church building is in first class condition having very recently undergone many repairs, including a good furnace.

The present trustees are, H. H. Moore, E. H. Moore, S. Ed Taylor & Fred McElvee, Guy Campbell. Stewards: H. H. Moore, O. J. Campbell & C. H. Martin, and H. M. Taylor.

The ministers who have gone out from this church are Rev. J. A. Smith, Rev. W. D. Swecker.

SCHOOLS

The first school at Dunmore were taught at the Chesley Moore house.

The school in the adjoining neighborhood was taught by Mrs. C. L. Moore, whose son, the present Doctor, now the Interim leader of the church, was born in the school room. The school was taught in an old house on the same place where Ellett Carpenter now lives. A small building of rough material was erected on the banks between the houses of Lawrence and Russell McLaughlin and school was in session at this point for about twenty years. Some of the teachers who taught in this school were John A. Warrick, Irish Bird, S. L. Brown, Preston Josby, John C. Lockfile, Albert Nottingham, Charles Cook, and the last school teacher taught in this building was by our good neighbor Mrs. Alice Moore, who also taught the first school in the building that is now in use.

In the Dunmore community we have the following schools; Millside, Mill Creek, Thorny Creek, McLaughlin, Curry and Dunmore. The Dunmore school was started in a one room building in 1880. Miss Emma Warrick was the first teacher. Our town now has a two room building which is located a short distance from where the old building stood. The whole community has access to a first class high school at Dunmore, which is being well attended.

MINERAL SPRINGS----- TIMBER

Dunmore is noted for its fine mineral springs. The Lithia water is held in high favor for its purity and the analyses shows this water to be very similar to the famous Eureka springs in Arkansas. The Sulphur, Magnesia and Chlyleaf are yet quietly bubbling up in the great river unappreciated.

The timber and trout attract many tourists to this beautiful valley.

The coal fields of the region, which compare with any in the country, will doubtless be recently tested that the timber larger bear the honor of the transportation of this lumber from Etowah, Virginia. (This was for the transportation of logs to the mill and did not connect with outside railroads.)

A large portion of the timber was floated out of Sitlington Creek into the Greenbrier River and on to Moncevert. Today the white pine is exhausted and the hardwood is being manufactured here and shipped in lumber via the Greenbrier Division of the C. & O. railway.

The narrow pathways are fast being replaced by good roads and wide highways.

example of a model camp.

Five miles from the camp is the Smoke Camp Tower, manned by Camp Thornwood. The government road from camp to tower is called Long Run and Smoke Creek Roads. Continuing on State 28 you drive through the National Forest to Pendleton County line.

COMMUNITY HISTORIES

Juanita S. Dilley
Clover Lick, W. Va.
POCAHONTAS COUNTY
August 1, 1940

HISTORY OF DUNMORE COMMUNITY ---BY ELLA PRITCHARD -1927

Sometime between 1740 and 1750 the King of England sent a young man to America to survey for him. He surveyed and bought for his own a large boundary of land east of the Greenbrier River, west of the Allegheny Mountains. This brave Englishman was Leut. Warwick. His boundary included all of the land now owned by Harry M. Moore, Ernest H. Moore, the Pritchards, McLaughlins and many other land owners who have bought off of these larger farms.

Leut. Warwick married Miss Elizabeth Dunlap, making his home at Dunmore. Leut. Warwick returned to England leaving his wife and little son Jacob. He died on this trip. His widow later married Robert Sitlington of Bath County and they made their home at Dunmore until Jacob Warwick was 21 years old. His mother had secured a deed for him covering all of the land owned by his father Leut. Warwick.

Sitlington's Creek was named for Robert Sitlington.

FORT

In the last years of the seventeenth century a fort was built near where the post office now stands, for the protection of pioneer settlers against Indian raids. A covered walk was built from the fort to the rock so they could always get water in safety.

The Warwick property belonged to Jacob Warwick's grandsons John and James Mathews. Jacob Mathews owned the S. H. Moore place. After the death of his wife, the land was sold to P. F. Jackson who sold the property to A. A. Smith and from him it came into the possession of A. M. Moore. Andrew G. Mathews lived on the land now owned by the Pritchards and A. M. Moore and named it Mathewville, and it is thought that he established a postoffice by that name.

Andrew Mathews sold to William L. Duncan and Isaac Moore. Both families occupied the house S. Cornelius Pritchard replaced by a new house, now the Pritchard homestead. Duncan and Moore combined their names and changed the name of the postoffice from Mathewville to Dunmore. Later Duncan and Moore divided their purchase, Isaac Moore established a home in which H. M. Moore now lives. Duncan sold his land to John W. Warwick in 1855, and in 1860 it was bought by John Andrew Warwick. He sold to a Mr. Jackson of Warm Springs, Va. In 1875 S. C. Pritchard of Frederick County Virginia, exchanged a farm on Jackson's River for the Johnson farm at Dunmore.

Some of the descendants of Leut. Warwick who have been reared at Dunmore are Mrs. S. B. Hannah, Mrs. M. E. Nixon, Mrs. Reece Pritchard, Mrs. Haven Deacon, Mrs. Joseph Lyons, Miss Maybelle Moore and Merritt Moore.

Dunmore is the birthplace and home of the first wife of Uriah Aticker Sr. She was the daughter of Andrew Mathews, and only lived a few years after their marriage, leaving two very young daughters known today as Mrs. Ella Summerson and Mrs. S. B. Hannah, Sr.

MILLS

The only flour mill for a number of miles was located at ...
... for a number of splendid water power, which never froze nor
... making it dependable. The older mill was run by what ... called an overshot wheel. It is believed to have been built by the Mathews) Later another mill was erected by Col. S. C. Pritchard who used the turbine wheel for power, which was a great improvement. Our present mill, an up-to date roller mill as built by Winfred McElvee. (1912)

On the old water power location there was also an up and down saw mill, also a carding machine which did splendid work, and a planing machine which made it a very business center.

The first store building was built of logs. It still stands on the bank of the creek and is owned by Fred Pritchard. First merchants who kept this store were Duncan & Cox, Newton & George Wilson later kept store in the same building. After this Richard Daniels was in the merchantile business in a new and up to date building on the banks of the race. This building was destroyed by fire a few years ago.

W. H. Gackley and B. F. McElwee built the house where J. B. Pritchard now resides and used this store room until business caused them to build greater. In this new building C. E. Pritchard now does business.

W. H. Gackley built and lived where Fred Pritchard now lives. Robert Daniels built the residence which is now the Dunmore motel and is owned by Blind Nottingham. Mrs. Mary Hull built her home across the street. W. A. Wool built and opened the store where Gray Pritchard is in the business. Winfred McElwee built the bungalows where Sam & Lavelin and Jack Sheets now live. All of the above buildings, also from John Lightburn on the Huntersville road and the hotel or residence on the Wellington road were sold off the same day as the rest, beyond the Presbyterian Church all was as the old left it, in the woods.

William and Esq. Hugh McLaughlin bought about 1600 acres from Master Mathews, originally the Leut. Warwick survey. This land passes in all of the McLaughlin homes including the Brooke, Corbett, and Deputy's farms. William McLaughlin and his brother Esq. Hugh came to Locahontas in 1829.

John Carpenter another old pioneer settled on Thomas Creek. He divided his land among his four sons, William, John Jr., Hugh and Peter. This land is now the homes of Harry Taylor, James Watson
and John Hill Carpenter.

Near the mouth of Sittlington Creek the land was owned by Robert Lindsay and Jonathan Potts. The site where the town of Savood now stands, was originally owned by a colored family by the name of Diggs. They sold to Andrew Matliff, who sold to George Hill. Some was purchased by the Warren Lumber Co. and used for a lumber yard and manufacturing town.

Burny Creek was first settled by Martin Willey, from Maryland of which descent, in 1820. He located where his son Andrew lived; he was the father of Hanson and Amos Willey, who resided on the creek. Rev. James Wanless one of the original settlers of the creek settled sometime during the 20's, at his death leaving estate to his nephew John R. Wanless.

John Campbell McMillan, January 11th, 1825, married Elizabeth McMillan, and settled on Thomas Creek. While they were not the first settlers, they were among the earliest to begin the production of whiskey bottled in the woods and built their home in the woods, and have had many hard times.
John Campbell McMillan died in 1861; a part

William and Esq. Hugh McLaughlin bought about 1600 acres from John Mathews, originally the Leint. Warwick survey. This land passed in all of the McLaughlin homes including the Brooks, Corbett, and Deputy's farms. William McLaughlin and his brother Esq. Hugh came to Lebanonas in 1829.

John Carpenter another old pioneer settled on Thomas Creek. He divided his land among his four sons, William, John Jr., Hugh and Peter. This land is now the homes of Harry Taylor, James Watson
and John Hill Carpenter.

Near the mouth of Sutlington Creek the land was owned by John Lindsey and Jonathan Potts. The site where the town of Lebanon now stands, was originally owned by a colored family by the name of Diggs. They sold to Andrew Matliff, who sold to George Matliff. This was purchased by the Warren Lumber Co. and used for a timber and manufacturing town.

Thomas Creek was first settled by Martin Willey, from Maryland about 1780. He located where his son Andrew lived; Andrew the father of Wilson and Amos Willey, who resided on the Creek. Mr. Wilson however one of the original settlers of the creek settled outside during the 180's, at his death leaving his property to his son, Wm. Wallace.

John C. Hatchan, married Elizabeth Hatchan, on Thomas Creek, while they were not the first settlers, they were the first to bring in the application of improved methods of cultivation, and the first to raise a large quantity of grain, and the first to raise a large quantity of cotton.

William Nottingham of the Glade Hill neighborhood, married
Mrs. Arbogast, daughter of Adam Arbogast, and settled in the woods.
This is now one of our best farms, and is owned by Dr. Ligon Price and the tenth of his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Calvin Price.

George Craig, father of the late Rev. Newton Craig, was the earliest settler at Glade Hill. A sad tragedy has impressed this fact. The colored nurse became angry when reproved by Mrs. Craig and in an expression of her wrath she threw the baby girl in a large kettle of boiling water. That the mother right forgot this horrible act, they sold the nurse to Col. Paul McKeel of Millsboro, who then bought the Andrew Mathers farm. Isaac Moore bought the Glade Hill farm from Paul McKeel, and S. A. Moore inherited it from his father
.... It has been sold again and divided into three which are Charles Nottingham, James Wilfong and Charles Wilfong.

Benjamin Arbogast, one of the pioneers of the Buzzard Hollow built a brick house where Cornelius Buzzard now lives.
In this home they had all of their preaching services.

John Hollis, their shoes in hand, walked to Greenbank to church each day. On their return they attended Sunday School and prayer meeting conducted in John Buttons barn. When they did all this in the cold spring rain, with only a narrow path just wide enough for one to walk, no doubt wonder that they made no complaints, and that they treasured their shoes.

John Hollis, his wife, lived in the same place ~~where~~ <sup>Emery</sup> John Hollis' son, John Hollis, built a log house just across the creek from the old house.
